APPENDIX

Explanatory Note.

Pamphlets Nos. 1 through 32 were published by the Joint Commission appointed by the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, October 19, 1910, to arrange for a World Conference on Faith and Order. The Commission was appointed by joint action of the House of Bishops and of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, and was composed of members of both Houses. Its instructions were to invite other Churches to join with it in calling and arranging for a World Conference on Faith and Order. Direction of the Movement continued in the hands of the Joint Commission until the Preliminary Meeting held August 12-20, 1920, in Geneva. The pamphlets bear the address of the Commission's Secretary, Mr. Robert H. Gardiner, Gardiner, Maine.

Pamphlets Nos. 33 through 103 were published by the Continuation Committee, first appointed by the Preliminary Meeting at Geneva, 1920; a new Continuation Committee was appointed by the Lausanne Conference of 1927, and a third by the Edinburgh Conference of 1937. Mr. Gardiner became General Secretary of the Geneva Continuation Committee and served until his death on June 15, 1924. The Continuation Committee appointed his office secretary, Mr. Ralph W. Brown, as "Head of the Secretariat," and the office continued in Boston, though no longer in Mr. Gardiner's law office; the address became "P. O. Box 226, Boston, Mass." In 1932, Mr. Brown, who had been made General Secretary of the Continuation Committee at Lausanne, established his office at Geneva. The American office was moved from Boston to New York, at 111 Fifth Avenue. In 1933, the Rev. Dr. Leonard Hodgson, Canon of Winchester Cathedral, England, succeeded Mr. Brown as General Secretary, and the address on the pamphlets was changed to Winchester. About this time, also, the American office was moved to Washington, Conn. When Canon Hodgson became Professor at Oxford and Canon of Christ Church, the Oxford address succeeded that of Winchester. In 1948, the Continuation Committee became the Commission on Faith and Order of the World Council of Churches, and the Rev. Oliver S. Tomkins was appointed Secretary of the Commission, with office at 7 Kensington Church Court, London; this address appears on No. 103, the last pamphlet of the series and the first of the second series.

Note A. Nos. 4, 9, and 10, are the only translations of No. 2 into Greek, German, and French, respectively. It is necessary to note this because a paragraph in pamphlet No. 33, bottom of page 95, incorrectly states that three pamphlets published in 1920 are translations of No. 2. These three 1920 pamphlets, which are not part of the numbered series, are translations of a document inviting the Churches to send delegates to the Preliminary Meeting in Geneva in August, 1920; whereas No. 2 is the original Resolution of 1910.

Note B. Re: this "Reprint" of November, 1917: Dr. Floyd Tomkins found that the texts of the two pamphlets are the same, with different lines of type. Two names are added on page 7: G. Mott Williams, H. E. W. Fosbroke. These names are dropped: F. J. Kinsman, William M. Clark, Henry S. Nash, A. G. Mortimer, Seth Low, J. Pierpont Morgan, Robert Fulton Cutting. Mr. Gardiner's name in Russian is omitted. Address given: Post Office Box 436, Gardiner, Maine, U.S.A. This edition is therefore technically not a reprint.

Note C. On Pamphlets 14, 15, 18, 19, 20 and 21 the actual date of printing is stated on reprints, not on the first issue.

NOTE ON HUNTINGTON LIBRARY. Upon the basis of correspondence, and a personal visit there on August 14, 1956, it is clear that the F & O Archives cannot expect to obtain the copies of F & O documents in the possession of the Huntington Library. Dr. Leslie Bliss made it clear that the Library never lends, even for exhibition or to the Library of Congress, and never disposes of any cataloged item. It is interested in the F & O materials because some of them are examples of G. Updike printing from the Merrymount Press, Boston, as a part of the Library's records of early American printing.
